... Letter from Our President ...

So much is going on, I hardly know where to start. First of all, I am now working at New Pieces in Berkeley. All the employees work part time (2-3 four-hour shifts per week). I don't see any conflicts of interest but I wanted to be transparent and open. If you have a question or a concern, please let me know.

Secondly, I'm sure you miss Black Cat as I do . . . However, quilting fabric is still sold in the city of San Francisco.

Before you go on a scavenger hunt, check out Quiltworks/Thriftstitch. Linda Hannawalt has announced she will be taking some of their fabric to her new home and store in Mexico . . . but most of it is staying here! I'm also sure that if you are looking for something she doesn't have, let her or her staff know. They would prefer ordering what you want instead of what you don't want. Just as it is beneficial to support our guild, it is also beneficial to support our members and affiliates. Wee Scotty also sells fabric. (I'm not looking at our list of affiliates. Please support all of them.) Have you been to Satin Moon or Fabrix on Clement Street?

Thirdly, thanks to all of you who do support our guild . . . by attending meetings, volunteering for various service positions, and working on special projects. Our guild wouldn't be nearly as great without your participation. We continually want your help moving the tables to set up for our meetings and returning them to the classroom configuration at the end of the meeting. Remember, some of our members have physical challenges and are unable to help with this task. There are many positions available for our next quilt show with both preliminary work to do and short shifts the day of the show.

I think our guild is one of the best around. Together we can make it even better. Happy quilting, Jane Strem

... Speakers ...

June 21: Letitia Chung. "Always Quilting, Always Learning"

When longtime guild member Letitia Chung presents her quilting life in a trunk show, you'll see the truth of this talk's title. Tish is both a prolific quilter and an inveterate student: so far this year alone she's taken classes with Jean Wells, Patty Hawkins, and Ursula Kern. And she's either finished or close to finishing the quilts she began with those teachers. Is she traditional? Is she modern? Yes! her quilt, Whimsical Logs*, got a coveted spot in the fiercely competitive Modern Quilt Guild's QuiltCon 2016 . . . and went on to win first prize in their Modern Traditionalism category.

correction: Letitia Chung's first name was misspelled in the May Quilters Cables and we apologize.

**Whimsical Logs",
pieced by Letitia
Chung, machine

Grant, sashiko by Letitia Chung.*

July 19th: Freddy Moran. “The Journey of a Quilter”

Freddy made her first quilt at age 60 and is still going strong! Her trunk show features loads of creativity, as red is her neutral. In her own words: “I will describe my joyful first quilt at age 60 to my quilts made at age 80+. I will show lots of work from then until now in a program intended to encourage all ages to quilt.”

Can you volunteer to be a chauffeur for Freddy Moran?

Freddy doesn't drive, and she needs rides both to and from her lecture-trunk show on Tuesday July 19th, and to and from her workshop on Saturday July 23rd. She lives in Orinda. Please contact Cathy Miranker (415\) 200-8078 or Cathy@Miranker.com, if you can help with Freddy's transportation for either event. Thanks!!

The Sewcial Scene

Sewcials are an important part of our guild. Here's where we learn new techniques, and relearn those old techniques, share our creativity with each other, and just have fun. A supply list will be provided when you sign up (full supply list at guild meeting or on website). In addition to the supply list for each sewcial, please bring: extension cord, cutting board, rotary cutter, sewing machine, rulers, fabric, etc. Arrive about fifteen minutes before the start of the workshop (9:45 A.M.) to set up and get directions so that we can begin on time. Remember, there are no refunds for cancellations. For the comfort of all, please attend sewcials “fragrance free.” Bring your lunch or check out several places to eat within walking distance. Please pay fees when you sign up in advance for sewcials. For more info contact Cathy Miranker Cathy@Miranker.com. All sewcials are held at the San Francisco Police Academy unless noted.

Directions to the Police Academy: Most sewcials are held at the San Francisco Police Academy, 350 Amber Drive (at Duncan), near Diamond Heights Safeway. Take SF Muni bus #52; or drive your car, parking is free.

Lower Price for Sewcials! The cost of all sewcial workshops has dropped to $50 ($65 for nonmembers). This price cut represents a yearlong experiment adopted by the guild's board of directors and is intended to encourage more sign-ups for sewcials. Classes need a minimum of ten participants, and students must pay for the class when they sign up—no exceptions. You can read more about the new pricing policy on our website.

Upcoming Speakers and Sewcials: We have a terrific line-up of speakers and sewcial instructors in 2016. Here's a handy chart that shows you the rest of this year's programs at a glance:

Month	2016 Speakers	2016 Sewcial Instructor & Class Title	date
June	Tish Chung	Community Outreach Saturday Sewcial	06/25
July	Freddy Moran	Freddy Moran: Patchwork Collage	07/23
August	Kevin Kosbab	Kevin Kosbab: AlphaBlocks	08/20
September	The Pixeladies	Thom Atkins: Beading for Quilters	09/24
October	Jan Soules	Jan Soules: Judges' Choice	10/18

Saturday June 25: Community Outreach Saturday Sewcial

We'll have a lovely lunch and lots of fun finishing donated quilt tops, sewing orphan blocks, binding quilts, and much more. It's a great time to get help finishing quilts using the envelope method, paper piecing, binding, machine quilting, or to share your expertise.

Saturday July 23: Patchwork Collage—with Freddy Moran

Students will make a patchwork collage, capturing a still life, landscape, or any concept desired. Freddy will show more than 25 quilts, books, and pictures to help students achieved their desired effect. This is a big bold project; the more color you use, the happier your collage.

Amazing Dear Jane Saturday Sewcial!

submitted by Alex Byrne

Amazing appliqué workshop at our guild's May Saturday Sewcial with Laura Fraga. Eleven people showed up, working on Dear Jane blocks. We all learned so much and all became official “Janiacs” with the completion of our first blocks.

May Board-Meeting Minutes

submitted by Janet Mednick, Vice President

Attendees at the May board meeting: Jane Strem, Janet Mednick, Gloria Miller, Jeanie Low, Claudia Shearer, Lee Schulstad, Cher delaMere, Cathy Miranker; board secretary Sheila Salomon not in attendance, so Janet Mednick offered to record minutes. We had several in-depth discussions at this meeting. Remember, board meetings are open to everyone. This is your guild and your opinions make a difference. Your ideas and participation are welcomed. We meet from 7–9 P.M. the fourth Tuesday of the month at the Ortega library community room. You're all welcome!

Treasurer's report: Gloria stated this month's report was "short" as she did not have the opportunity to log in all monetary items. According to the written report, there is a total of $55,946.00 between savings and checking.

Election: Parliamentarian Claudia asked the group if any want to remain on the board. Yes: Gloria. Maybe: Jane—but all agreed that a third term is okay. No: Janet; and Sheila will be moving away. We definitely need a new vice president and secretary. Your feedback and input is appreciated.

Programs and Sewcials: Laura Fraga's lecture went well despite technical difficulties in the setup stage. The guild's projector is hopelessly out of date and cannot handle high-def photos etc. This should not be a problem in June or July as no equipment will be needed . . . trunk shows. August speaker is a "techie" and will have his own equipment. Cathy is researching our outdated projector issue. We discussed the issue and decided to not to rush out and buy anything yet; that speakers should, in general, travel with their own equipment as it's "their livelihood"; and that if we were to buy a projector the concern is that it too will become quickly obsolete. Regarding Sewcials, there appears to be very little interest by the larger group in taking these classes, which is very discouraging. Only two out of five Sewcials actually took place so far this year. Any ideas? Cathy also stated that there has been little response from guild members in regards to the letter from the Texas ladies who will be driving in for the July meeting.

Quilt San Francisco 2017: Lee reported that the last show meeting was very small. They discussed Featured Artists and narrowed it down to three quilters. This is one of our major fund-raising activities so we need lots of participation.

Community Outreach: Adrienne was not in attendance but did email her report. Jane stated she's doing a great job.

Friendship Blocks: We discussed how nice it is to have a quilt that many of our guild members helped to create!

Historian: Jeanie did a write up on Esther Henley and will be culling from items previously written about guild members to add to the collection.

Library: Cher has decided not to hold a Book Sale this December, as it is too physically demanding for her. Also says she will ease out of the librarian role by next year. Eighteen years is enough and she has life plans that need to be followed through on. Janet suggested buying some books on longarm quilting techniques (not just pattern-idea books)—there are currently no books on this subject in the collection.

We discussed the November Auction. Auctioneer possibilities include Joe Cunningham and Sue Fox. It was suggested we do away with the auction as it is getting less popular but that idea was discarded. We will have the Cash-and-Carry table sale again as well. Need to line up facilitators for Make-and-Take Tables at the December meeting. What should replace the book sale??

Opportunity Quilt: Claudia researched getting raffle tickets printed but doesn't have a photo of the quilt, its dimensions, or its name, so she cannot purchase tickets at this time. 4,000 tickets = approximately $90. This quilt still needs to be quilted. Will there be time to get sufficient raffle sales?

Quiltaway 2018: Needs chairpeople . . . And, should we search out a new venue?? It's getting difficult for our older members, and young ones too, to manage the layout of Mercy Center, which is not conducive for a sewing retreat.

June Board of Directors Meeting

The June board-of-directors meeting will be held on June 28 at 7 P.M. at the Ortega branch library, 3223 Ortega Street. All members are welcome and invited to join; committee chairs please submit email reports if not attending. Contact Janet Mednick if you have any questions at (415) 509-6027.

Fun New-Member Social!

Six new members attended the new-member social May 15th in San Bruno. We created name tags and were made welcome by the various board members who talked about all of the ways to get involved in the guild. A good time was had by all.

History Corner

submitted by Jeanie Low, guild historian

This October marks the beginning of our 35th year since the guild was established. Plans are in motion for our anniversary celebration on January 17, 2017. We represent the ethnic diversity in the San Francisco Bay Area. Our guild was formed as a nonprofit organization in 1981 by our founders: Caroline Lieberman, Anita Barber, Joanne Campbell, Judy Cauthen, Lorna Barish, Shirley Towan, and Joanne Watson. Over sixty members who joined on October 5, 1981 were designated Charter Members. At present, thirteen of them are still members: Anita Barber, Barbara Blue, Linda Breitbarth, Maurine Brown, Joanne Campbell, Rose Fraden, Darlene Hartman, Caroline Lieberman, Louise Marcal, Gloria Miller, Florence Morris, Nettie Vance, and Alexandria Zaremska.

Our newsletter, Quilters Cables, and the friendship blocks, were started in 1981. Our logo was designed by Nora O'Neil in 1982. The first opportunity quilt was "I Left My Heart in San Francisco" with Tony Bennett signing one of the blocks.

We will have our 17th quilt show next year—Quilt San Francisco 2017—March 24–25 at the Event Center at St. Mary's Cathedral. Our first quilt show, "Treasure Chest of Quilts," was held on March 12–13, 1983 and staged at Fort Mason.

In our 35 years, we've had 29 presidents with several individuals who have served more than one term. They have given our guild a backbone to go forward and continue our mission.

let's ever keep it true.
We know our days are filled with praise.
Help to the other sends it back with and,
Yes, our quilt group is a joy ever.

Our Member Log-In to our website (www.sfquiltersguild.org) will allow you to read some of our quiltmaker stories compiled to date. You are invited to submit your quiltmaker story to me at wongyen@comcast.net. If you are not computer literate, you may also give me your story in typed or handwritten format. The questionnaire to begin your story is on our guild's homepage. You may also get a copy at the Hospitality/History table during meetings. A fat quarter from our guild will be given as a thank-you gift for your participation. We have discontinued the oral interviews.

2017 Challenge Quilt

submitted by Laraine Salmon

The subject for the 2017 Challenge Quilt will be . . . drum roll please . . . !!!!! Favorite Childhood Fairy Tales. No matter where you grew up, there were undoubtedly some stories you were told that captured your imagination and stayed with you. Be it the handsome prince in Snow White, or the beanstalk Jack made famous, Rapunzel's unbelievably long locks, or even your favorite wicked witch, they are all fair game in this challenge. Use your imagination! Have fun! Get started early, so we can have a great Challenge Quilt display in 2017. Questions? Call or email Laraine Salmon (510\) 295-9109 larainesalmon@comcast.net.

Community Outreach

submitted by Adrienne Hickman

Saturday Sewcial: Come one, come all: Saturday, June 25th is the official Community Outreach Saturday Sewcial!! There will be lots to do. There will be kits for quilts for kids of all sizes; kits for pillowcases; tops ready to machine quilt or tie; orphan blocks to incorporate into a quilt top; and more.

Bring your sewing machine and extension cord, cutting board, rotary cutter, rulers, etc. Or just come and help with non-sewing tasks. We have rotary cutters, scissors, and rulers you can use or bring your own. Come from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. or any amount of time that you can spare from your busy life. Lunch will be provided. Sewcials are held at the SF Police Academy, 350 Amber Drive (at Duncan), near Diamond Heights Safeway. Take SF Muni bus #52 or drive your car, parking is free.

Gratitude from Epiphany Center: Everyone who has worked on a community-outreach quilt in any capacity should take personally the following thank you from Mary Rhoades!

"Oh my goodness! The quilts are just beautiful. The women were so thrilled to receive them. We are so blessed to have your continued generosity and be the recipients of 'the fruits of all your labor.' Please extend our gratitude to all the wonderful quilters."

New Recipient: We are now donating adult quilts to Laguna Honda. These quilts should be 38" x 47" for wheel chairs and 42" x 60" for lap quilts. Remember, we cannot accept larger quilt tops as we have no one to quilt them.

Statistics: Guild members brought thirty-seven preemie quilts to the May meeting! We also received fifteen pillowcases, two baby kits, and one toddler/lap quilt. Keep up the good work!

Hospitality

submitted by Jeanie Low

Happy birthday to those celebrating your birthdays by bringing a tasty treat and/or drink to share each month. Thanks! We also appreciate those of you who have brought treats even when it isn't your birthday, or have checked in to help and chat ☺. I'm gathering ideas for our guild's 35th anniversary celebration party for January 17th, so, send your ideas and/or whether you would like to help. Fear not, we will keep it simple. I will be submitting a budget by the end of July. Contact me: wongyen@comcast.net.

What's Happening at QuiltWorks??

submitted by Linda Hannawalt

Quilting goes to Mazatlan . . . "Yes," we are moving 600 bolts of fabric to Mazatlan to open the first all-service quilt shop in Mexico. Our name will be "San Francisco Quilt Shop" in Mazatlan. The local women want everyone to know our quilting fabric is the best and from the USA. We will also be taking two longarm quilting machines and teaching our 22 women how to quilt on the longarms. It will be a new industry for them to earn money to support their families.

Over 10,000 Canadians and as many other snowbirds from northern United States migrate to Mazatlan for the cold season, November to May, each year. Five cruise-ship lines have returned to Mazatlan and our new quilt shop is directly on the blue-line route from the ships to the center of town: great location. We hope to meet lots of quilters from all over the world.

If you want an interesting shop hop, come on down to Mazatlan and visit our new shop. We can provide free room and board for anyone who wants to teach a class to the locals. Or just come and visit. But make a reservation, we are only five blocks from the ocean and in the center of everything. But don't worry! QuiltWorks and ThriftStitch are open as usual, Thursday & Friday, 12-6 and Saturday 10-4, at 2189 Bayshore Boulevard, suite 101, San Francisco.

How about this . . . it's like a shop hop, but it's not . . . no fees, no cards to stamp, and all summer to play! Simply visit any of the participating RxR shops and receive a free pattern for a row in a quilt. Combine your rows in any way to create a unique quilt that represents the fun you had traveling throughout the summer. Travel with friends, discover new quilt shops, and have fun collecting rows! There will be prizes and collectibles! Keep your eyes open for pins, T-shirts, caps, and even more RxR licensed items. Create a quilt using at least eight different rows from eight different participating RxR shops and be the first to bring it into a participating shop to win a stack of 25 fat quarters (6 1/4 yards of fabric!). Use that shop's row in your quilt and win a bonus prize!

Row by Row Experience™ began in 2011 with 20 quilt shops across New York state. In 2012 the event grew to include 62 participating shops. Pennsylvania came on board in 2013 for a total of 138 shops throughout the two states.

In 2014 over 1,250 quilt shops participated in 34 states and Ontario. The biggest year so far has been 2015, with 2,655 shops across the US and Canada participating! 2016 will be even better!

Although the quilt shops are organized by area, quilters know no borders. Travel, shop, collect patterns, and add rows to your quilt from anywhere! You cannot get the row patterns from quilt shops that are far away unless you travel; the shops are offering the pattern only to customers who walk in the door. Please don't ask shops to email or mail their row patterns, and please do not make copies of the patterns you collect; the patterns are copyright property of the designers. Simply visit any participating quilt shop during the summer and ask for their free pattern for a row in a quilt. The 2016 theme is Row by Row Home Sweet Home, and each shop is working with the "home" theme in their row. The shops are happy to give you the pattern at no cost, limit one per person, walk-in customers only. You have from 6/21- 9/6/2016 to collect the free patterns. You have until 10/31/2016 to submit a quilt for a prize. www.rowbyrowexperience.com
